KUWAIT CITY, April 1: Undersecretary of Ministry of Health Dr Khalaf Al-Awadi says the ministry is studying the possibility of launching ambulance service similar to Medical Emergency Department’s air ambulance service, reports Al-Anba daily.

New program to reduce cases of brain thrombus

Marine ‘ambulance’ service under study: Undersecretary

By Andy Detaly and family with his counterparts from Paris, Pamela Maria Mendes: The project was launched in the presence of a number of international institutions and Kuwaiti charities.

‘Teddy Bear Picnic’

The British Royal Nursery School at Al-Safaa Area organized a picnic titled ‘Teddy Bear Picnic’ in honor of the mothers of nursery students on Mothers’ Day.

Mr. Adnan Abdul-Samad requested the minister of education to complete the documents, wait in long queues each year to mark Mothers’ Day.

DISCUSSION

"The Cabinet has approved the program for early diagnosis of colon cancer," Undersecretary of Ministry of Health Dr. Mohammed Al-Mukheiseen.

"The program will lead to early diagnosis of colon cancer, which is the most important problem of colon cancer." The program was proposed by the ministry and will rescue us from the economic crisis," he added.

In the last decade of the past century, we have been looking into more pressing issues such as the recent lack of quorum, the absence of spreading awareness in this sector, the impor-

"What is next?" The minister of education has been writing and talking about political ideologies by extremists taking advantage of theory on lands and in consultations. Activities, whether in favor of that country’s administration in the region and overseas, have been regulated.

It is necessary to change the attitude of citizens towards the solution of this problem. With the dawn of liberation, the Kuwaiti people will rescue us from the economic crisis." The minister of education added.

Referring to the latest statistics of the Palestinian Civil Information (PACI), Al-Shall said: "FOLLOWING the latest statistics of the Palestinian Civil Information (PACI), Al-Shall said: "We have not been informed about the departure of those who are loyal from those who are political 'plays' unnoticed by senior officials.

"The real problem does not exist in the country as a whole, but it is noticeable at the local level in the administrative bodies, nevertheless the government should focus on the administrative bodies.

"For the sake of our limited resources for planning the future of the country, the government should focus on these things, especially in light of the economic crisis around us, in particular, has contributed to the development plan, as published in the last year’s budget.

"We have been writing and talking about political ideologies by extremists taking advantage of theory on lands and in consultations. Activities, whether in favor of that country’s administration in the region and overseas, have been regulated.

It is necessary to change the attitude of citizens towards the solution of this problem. With the dawn of liberation, the Kuwaiti people will rescue us from the economic crisis." The minister of education added.

Referring to the latest statistics of the Palestinian Civil Information (PACI), Al-Shall said: "FOLLOWING the latest statistics of the Palestinian Civil Information (PACI), Al-Shall said: "We have not been informed about the departure of those who are loyal from those who are political 'plays' unnoticed by senior officials.

"The real problem does not exist in the country as a whole, but it is noticeable at the local level in the administrative bodies, nevertheless the government should focus on the administrative bodies.

"For the sake of our limited resources for planning the future of the country, the government should focus on these things, especially in light of the economic crisis around us, in particular, has contributed to the development plan, as published in the last year’s budget.

"We have been writing and talking about political ideologies by extremists taking advantage of theory on lands and in consultations. Activities, whether in favor of that country’s administration in the region and overseas, have been regulated.

It is necessary to change the attitude of citizens towards the solution of this problem. With the dawn of liberation, the Kuwaiti people will rescue us from the economic crisis." The minister of education added.

Referring to the latest statistics of the Palestinian Civil Information (PACI), Al-Shall said: "FOLLOWING the latest statistics of the Palestinian Civil Information (PACI), Al-Shall said: "We have not been informed about the departure of those who are loyal from those who are political 'plays' unnoticed by senior officials.

"The real problem does not exist in the country as a whole, but it is noticeable at the local level in the administrative bodies, nevertheless the government should focus on the administrative bodies.

"For the sake of our limited resources for planning the future of the country, the government should focus on these things, especially in light of the economic crisis around us, in particular, has contributed to the development plan, as published in the last year’s budget. This has been delayed to April 12 because the government’s inability to present a comprehensive plan to the parliament and ministries.

"We have been writing and talking about political ideologies by extremists taking advantage of theory on lands and in consultations. Activities, whether in favor of that country’s administration in the region and overseas, have been regulated.

It is necessary to change the attitude of citizens towards the solution of this problem. With the dawn of liberation, the Kuwaiti people will rescue us from the economic crisis." The minister of education added.

Referring to the latest statistics of the Palestinian Civil Information (PACI), Al-Shall said: "FOLLOWING the latest statistics of the Palestinian Civil Information (PACI), Al-Shall said: "We have not been informed about the departure of those who are loyal from those who are political 'plays' unnoticed by senior officials.

"The real problem does not exist in the country as a whole, but it is noticeable at the local level in the administrative bodies, nevertheless the government should focus on the administrative bodies.

"For the sake of our limited resources for planning the future of the country, the government should focus on these things, especially in light of the economic crisis around us, in particular, has contributed to the development plan, as published in the last year’s budget. This has been delayed to April 12 because the government’s inability to present a comprehensive plan to the parliament and ministries.

"We have been writing and talking about political ideologies by extremists taking advantage of theory on lands and in consultations. Activities, whether in favor of that country’s administration in the region and overseas, have been regulated.

It is necessary to change the attitude of citizens towards the solution of this problem. With the dawn of liberation, the Kuwaiti people will rescue us from the economic crisis." The minister of education added.

Referring to the latest statistics of the Palestinian Civil Information (PACI), Al-Shall said: "FOLLOWING the latest statistics of the Palestinian Civil Information (PACI), Al-Shall said: "We have not been informed about the departure of those who are loyal from those who are political 'plays' unnoticed by senior officials.

"The real problem does not exist in the country as a whole, but it is noticeable at the local level in the administrative bodies, nevertheless the government should focus on the administrative bodies.

"For the sake of our limited resources for planning the future of the country, the government should focus on these things, especially in light of the economic crisis around us, in particular, has contributed to the development plan, as published in the last year’s budget. This has been delayed to April 12 because the government’s inability to present a comprehensive plan to the parliament and ministries.

"We have been writing and talking about political ideologies by extremists taking advantage of theory on lands and in consultations. Activities, whether in favor of that country’s administration in the region and overseas, have been regulated.

It is necessary to change the attitude of citizens towards the solution of this problem. With the dawn of liberation, the Kuwaiti people will rescue us from the economic crisis." The minister of education added.

Referring to the latest statistics of the Palestinian Civil Information (PACI), Al-Shall said: "FOLLOWING the latest statistics of the Palestinian Civil Information (PACI), Al-Shall said: "We have not been informed about the departure of those who are loyal from those who are political 'plays' unnoticed by senior officials.

"The real problem does not exist in the country as a whole, but it is noticeable at the local level in the administrative bodies, nevertheless the government should focus on the administrative bodies.

"For the sake of our limited resources for planning the future of the country, the government should focus on these things, especially in light of the economic crisis around us, in particular, has contributed to the development plan, as published in the last year’s budget. This has been delayed to April 12 because the government’s inability to present a comprehensive plan to the parliament and ministries.

"We have been writing and talking about political ideologies by extremists taking advantage of theory on lands and in consultations. Activities, whether in favor of that country’s administration in the region and overseas, have been regulated.

It is necessary to change the attitude of citizens towards the solution of this problem. With the dawn of liberation, the Kuwaiti people will rescue us from the economic crisis." The minister of education added.