Need to promote GCC military cooperation: Kuwaiti experts

KISR's director general meets with HH the Amir

Al-Shagaya renewable energy project to be completed by year end: Dr. Omar

Security issues taken prior to education in Arab world: Dr. Mohareb

AECOS calls on member states to contribute to its budget

Highness the PM returns home

Saudi King's vision on defense key issue

Ministry team leaves for Jakarta

Need to promote GCC military cooperation: Kuwaiti experts

Royal Britannia Kindergarten visits KDF factory

KUWAIT, May 17: (KUNA) - Two Kuwaiti experts underlined the significance of fostering the unified GCC military cooperation to maintain stability and security of the region's countries, and face challenges facing them.

Dr. Abdullah Beshara stressed the need to promote GCC military cooperation, considering it as a major opportunity to boost military and economic fields and achieve the common goals.

The 7th consultative meeting of the Council of Chiefs of Staff held in Riyadh on Sunday, which was attended by representatives of GCC member states, called for the development of centers of excellence, and the establishment of an independent GCC command center.

In a similar press statement, Dr. Faiz Al-Atrash, former minister of information, affirmed the urgency of fostering GCC cooperation, calling for taking preventive measures to promote the unity of the GCC and its allies in the region.

Ministry of Finance contemplating non-renewal of contract with WB

KUWAIT, May 17: Ministry of Finance is contemplating non-renewal of contract with World Bank after it realizes the deep crisis facing the ministry due to the huge number of retornoos de la corrupción.

He noted that "it is better for us to get closer to the US, as it is a strategic partner that can strike a balance between the energy market and stability of the region."

The meeting was attended by the Director General of the Islamic Research & Training Institute (IRTI), International Islamic Trade Finance Corporation (ITFC), the Islamic Research & Training Institute (ITFC), and the Islamic Development Bank (IDB).

A number of recommendations were made by the participants, including the need for GCC countries to work on joint economic strategies, the need for GCC countries to work on joint economic strategies, the need for GCC countries to work on joint economic strategies, and the need for GCC countries to work on joint economic strategies.

A number of recommendations were made by the participants, including the need for GCC countries to work on joint economic strategies, the need for GCC countries to work on joint economic strategies, the need for GCC countries to work on joint economic strategies, and the need for GCC countries to work on joint economic strategies.