Two '13 boycotters among 61 to sign

KUWAIT CITY, Oct 20: Sixty one boycotted the 2013 election in protest against colonialism to liberate the King and the people revolted from slumber or from using their active authority, making everyone of their anguish to the executors of the crime. The system since the 1950’s when his relationship with the people was strengthened, the people were not only working for any social or political reform, but also for the realization of their rights, which were acquired from their ancestors. Masoud Al-Mutairi, Mohammed Salih Al-Muawad, Mohammed Safi Al-Amari and Mousa Abdul-Rahman Al-Hashem.

Two Opposition backings for new constitution

KUWAIT CITY: The opposition MP’s in the Kuwaiti parliament have announced their backing for the new constitution that is being proposed. The MPs have expressed their support for the new constitution as it includes a number of reforms that will bring about a change in the way the country is governed. The MPs have also said that the new constitution will bring about a more democratic society in Kuwait. The MPs have been calling for a new constitution for some time and have been highlighting the need for reforms in the country.

A fiery speech from field King

By Ahmed Al-Jarallah

Editor-in-Chief, The Arab Times

KUWAIT CITY: The Kuwaiti King, the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques, delivered a fiery speech to the troops fighting against the Islamic State group. The King said that the fight against the Islamic State group is a fight to save the world and to save humanity. The King called on the troops to keep fighting until the end and to protect the country and the people.

Mosul ahead of plan

LATE AND NORTH OF MOSUL, Iraq Oct 19 (Reuters) - The offensive to retake wartime Iraqi city of Mosul has been delayed until next week and will likely take months to complete, a US general said on Wednesday, as Iraqis hunkered down in nearby villages.

A fiery speech from field King

By Ahmed Al-Jarallah

Editor-in-Chief, The Arab Times

KUWAIT CITY: The Kuwaiti King, the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques, delivered a fiery speech to the troops fighting against the Islamic State group. The King said that the fight against the Islamic State group is a fight to save the world and to save humanity. The King called on the troops to keep fighting until the end and to protect the country and the people.

Mosul ahead of plan

LATE AND NORTH OF MOSUL, Iraq Oct 19 (Reuters) - The offensive to retake wartime Iraqi city of Mosul has been delayed until next week and will likely take months to complete, a US general said on Wednesday, as Iraqis hunkered down in nearby villages.

A fiery speech from field King

By Ahmed Al-Jarallah

Editor-in-Chief, The Arab Times

KUWAIT CITY: The Kuwaiti King, the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques, delivered a fiery speech to the troops fighting against the Islamic State group. The King said that the fight against the Islamic State group is a fight to save the world and to save humanity. The King called on the troops to keep fighting until the end and to protect the country and the people.

Mosul ahead of plan

LATE AND NORTH OF MOSUL, Iraq Oct 19 (Reuters) - The offensive to retake wartime Iraqi city of Mosul has been delayed until next week and will likely take months to complete, a US general said on Wednesday, as Iraqis hunkered down in nearby villages.

A fiery speech from field King

By Ahmed Al-Jarallah

Editor-in-Chief, The Arab Times

KUWAIT CITY: The Kuwaiti King, the Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques, delivered a fiery speech to the troops fighting against the Islamic State group. The King said that the fight against the Islamic State group is a fight to save the world and to save humanity. The King called on the troops to keep fighting until the end and to protect the country and the people.

Mosul ahead of plan

LATE AND NORTH OF MOSUL, Iraq Oct 19 (Reuters) - The offensive to retake wartime Iraqi city of Mosul has been delayed until next week and will likely take months to complete, a US general said on Wednesday, as Iraqis hunkered down in nearby villages.