Al Mulla Exchange wraps up 2017 in style

2 begin new journey with latest Renault models

AABC awards NBK Walkathon winners

KUWAIT CITY, Dec 25: Abdulmohsen Abdulaziz Al Babbain Co (AABC), the authorized agent of Renault in the State of Kuwait recently presented Ibrahim Dsouky and Dan Solo with the latest models of Renault Koleos and Renault Megane respectively at the Renault showroom in Al Rai.

Ibrahim Dsouky was excited to receive the Renault Koleos, a powerful and refined SUV that is finely tuned with the Middle Eastern requirements backed by a local product range. The vehicle was specifically designed after having undergone extensive road testing in real-world conditions over several million kilometers during its course of development. Dan Solo, was the lucky winner who received the Renault Megane, a C Sedan, which is a popular choice in this market where dynamic compact saloons remain the preferred choice among many, the Renault Megane accommodates customers who enjoy success with a distinct social appeal, and brings with it record breaking roominess.

Renault Al Babbain will continue to participate in driving Kuwait's community initiatives forward through its commitment to encourage a healthier and better lifestyle.

Al Babbain Group was founded in 1948 to present a model of honesty, integrity and total dedication and to gain bright reputation in Kuwait and the Middle East area. Today Al Babbain Group has licensing rights for some of the world's leading brands stretching the globe from the USA to the Far East. For more than 60 years Al Babbain Group has experienced continued success, and large measure of this success came from the Group's advanced flexible management style and long term vision.

These astounding results were achieved due to a versatile strategic formula focusing on growth amongst its sphere of activities; including automotive, technology, investment, information, industrial and Finance. The automotive sector is the main structure of the Al Babbain Group's business, which owns some of the best selling and demanded brands in Kuwait, in addition to heavy equipments.

KUWAIT CITY, Dec 25: Al Mulla Exchange provided an evening of magnificent treat to music lovers by hosting famous Filipino band Truefaith at the American International School, Maidan Hawally on Dec 22 and 23, 2017.

This was the 153rd and 154th event organized by Al Mulla Exchange, the leading exchange company in Kuwait. The Chief Guest for the first day was Vice Consul Charleson Hermosura Charge d'Affaires and for the second day it was Acting Labor Attache Ms Lily Pearl Guerrero from the Embassy of The Philippines. There was a total of 4,000 ardent music lovers in attendance for the two day concert.

Truefaith band was formed in 1991 at the Philippines. They have become one of the Philippines' most popular and accomplished bands. The band took its name from New Order's 1987 hit single "True Faith", revealing the group's new wave origins. Under the Viva Records label, the band has 13 best-selling albums. Their music is best described as a blend of jazz, folk, pop and rock music.

The artists, as expected, took the audience on a rollicking ride of musical wave, belting out the best of their repertoire, getting the gallery to sway and dance. Talking to the media about the event, Praveen Singh, Divisional General Manager of Al Mulla Exchange said the Filipino community is among the most valued customers, whose support and trust have played a great role in the success of the company. "The Filipinos are lovers of art and music, and receive such events with a lot of excitement. This is our humble way of expressing our gratitude to the community."

Further, he added that this is the season of festivals, and we thought of adding to the festive mood with a quality show that people of all age groups and segments of the society can enjoy.

It was a delight to the packed audience when Philippine Airlines announced 3 free return tickets to Philippines, there were some lucky winners also announced to the surprise of the crowd assembled there.

High-end culinary festival

Maki Group set to compete at Horeca Kuwait 2018 fest

KUWAIT CITY, Dec 25:

Throughout time, the competitive spirit has always been celebrated and anticipated, in its many different forms, cultures and contexts. Leaders Group's Horeca F&B and hospitality exhibition facilitates a domain for various professionals to showcase their talents, skill and innovation. Maki Group is proud to announce their participation in the upcoming Horeca Kuwait 2018 event, which will take place from Jan 15 to 18, 2018, at the Kuwait International Fairgrounds in Mubarak Al-Abdullah, Kuwait.

Horeca stands for 'hotel, restaurant, and café' and is held in several countries in the Middle East. This high-end culinary festival features the most renowned, leading brands in the Food and Beverage industry. The grand finale of the trade event which features exhibitions, live food competitions, and demonstrations, is the awards ceremony which recognizes the achievements of the professional chefs who partake in the event's various competitions.

For Maki Group, it has almost become a long standing tradition to participate and compete at the Horeca events, starting from the year 2012, and achieve gold, silver, and bronze medals in various categories at every event. In addition, Maki's Group Executive Chef received the Boecker Food Safety Award in the years 2012, 2013, and 2015, which is granted for superior hygiene standards. This competition has even become a source of inspiration for a number of highly innovative signature dishes that are currently featured at all Maki locations, such as Sushi Jewels™ and Sushi Symphony™.

With great anticipation and eagerness to compete, Maki Group will be represented by 25 chefs competing in 6 different categories including: Live Sushi Competition, Asian Cuisine, Three-plated Desserts, Cold Canapes, Jack's Creek Perfect (JCP) Steak Challenge, and Mystery Basket.

Horeca Kuwait 2018 promises to be an exhilarating spectacle, with 'headliner' events such as Chocolate Carving, Themed Celebration Cake, and Bread Creation. Additionally, there will be live competition events such as the JCP Steak Challenge, Sushi Competition, Ice Carving Competition and many more. Join us this year in the exciting and invigorating world of competition in the F&B and hospitality industry. You can also view spectacular highlights of the competition and the exhibition on Maki's Instagram Story and on Horeca's Instagram page @horecakuwait.

ABK continues its employee training

KUWAIT CITY, Dec 25: Al Ahli Bank of Kuwait (ABK) recently announced its success in training the majority of its employees through e-learning courses to increase the awareness of the Bank's 'Customer Protection Manual' which is aimed at protecting the Bank's customers.

The Head of the Complaints and Customer Protection Unit at ABK, Ali Bu Hamad, stated that the manual to protect customers includes an important set of instructions that complements the directives and guidelines issued by the Central Bank of Kuwait. ABK has further updated and developed new policies, procedures, internal controls and principles that comply with the requirements in the manual, and the training is to activate these controls and to put them into practice for both the employees and customers' awareness.

The lectures and workshops that will be presented in the coming period represent a continuation of ABK's efforts to create a new cultural and professional environment, and to reiterate the importance of customer protection. The manual contains a set of general principles aimed at enhancing the protection of banking customers and creating an environment suitable for the preservation of their rights, which is compliant with the instructions and controls of the regulatory bodies, particularly the Central Bank of Kuwait.
