Kuwaiti and Iraqi relations improving steadily: report

13th anniversary of restoring diplomatic ties marked

BAGHDAD, June 27 (KUNA): Today (June 27th) marks the 13th anniversary of restoring normal diplomatic relations with neighboring Iraq, a neighbor with which Kuwait had experienced peak and ebb in ties, disputes, war and peace.

Cross-border routes through which Saddam Hussein’s forces invaded Kuwait in 1990, are now used by Kuwaiti convoys carrying humanitarian supplies to relocated Iraqis, mostly those settling in the north of the neighboring nation.

Moreover, these are the same roads via which Iraq had sent in ignominious, yet aimed at safeguarding oil installations and interests, two main sticking points in the three-month-long Gulf crisis.

Expatriates and Kuwaitis and expatriates with their children visited the Kuwait Zoo on the first day of Eid Al-Fitr.

Kuwaiti Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Sheikh Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah issued a statement of congratulations and remembrances to the people of Iraq on the occasion of Eid Al-Fitr, wishing them peace, prosperity, and success.

His Highness the Deputy Amir thanks Eid well-wishers

His Highness the Deputy Amir Sheikh Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah and His Highness the Crown Prince Sheikh Nawaf Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah received Eid Al-Fitr well-wishers after attending the Eid Al-Fitr prayers at the Grand Mosque.
