Spain to change Catalan leaders:

Spanish Prime Minister Mariano Rajoy has repeatedly said that he wants to change the Catalan leader’s position. He also said that there is a need for a new administration in Catalonia.

He also confirmed that he is in favor of a new election and that he will not be able to negotiate with the leaders of the Catalan parliament. Rajoy also said that he is ready to negotiate with other parties in order to find a solution.

Spain to charge Catalan leaders:

The Spanish government announced on Thursday that it would charge a number of Catalan politicians with sedition and rebellion.

The charges are related to the10th anniversary of the 2008 Madrid bombings.
