KUWAIT CITY, March 5, (KUNA): Under the patronage and with the attendance of His Highness the Amir Sheikh Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Jaber Al-Sabah, Kuwait University (KU) held its annual graduation ceremony for graduate and postgraduate students for the academic year 2016-2017 on Monday.

The ceremony was held at Sheikha Abdullah Al-Ahmad Al-Jaber Al-Sabah Theater at the KU campus in Shuwaikh district.

His Highness the Amir was welcomed upon arrival at the ceremony by Minister of Education, Higher Education and Knowledge Economy Dr. Hussein Al-Ansari, KU Director Dr. Hassam Al-Ani and university’s senior officials.

The ceremony was attended by His Highness the Crown Prince Sheikh Nawaf Al-Ahmad Al-Jaber Al-Sabah, National Assembly Speaker Mahdi Al-Algani, His Highness the Amir’s son Sheikha Al-Mohannad Al-Sheikh Al-Kabir, senior state officials and graduates and citizens.

Minister Al-Ani addressed a speech, greeting Their Highnesses the Amir, the Crown Prince, Speaker Al-Ghanim, HH the Prime Minister, senior state officials, graduates and citizens.

Dr. Hussein Al-Ansari, KU President, spoke of a number of endeavors over the world in a bid to offer its academic excellence to students and protect the country’s national development.

He congratulated the graduates and holders of Master’s degrees to serve the homeland and the nation.

Doctorate degrees to serve the graduates and holders of Master’s degrees and PhD holders served the homeland and the nation.

Premier, saying the university is an ideal act.

His Highness the Amir has always been a proponent of a sound education, unity; “for Kuwait is an eternal entity and we are just passport and its service is the most honorable and noble,” Al-Ansari said.

Dr. Hassam Al-Ani, KU Director, said the packed audience that the university has partnered with the private sector and public education, has contributed to notable 10 years.

He explained that Law No. 133, which extends the share of the university’s students, has contributed to notable improvements.

HH the Amir being received. HH the Crown Prince being received. Cake cutting ceremony. HH Sheikh Nasser being received. Some of the male graduates. Some of the female graduates.

The ceremony included the presentation of the 8th Doctorate degrees and PhD holders served the homeland and the nation.

The ceremony included the presentation of the 8th Doctorate and PhD degrees.

HH the Amir being received. HH the Crown Prince being received.

The opening was held in light of UN reports pinpointing the ongoing campaign, “Kuwait By Your Side.”

Andrea Rikea, a UN officer, said the festival was held in southern city Aden.

He indicated that the Kuwaiti society “is one of the most important partners who have been working with us.” He added that the meeting was meant to coordinate humanitarian operations in the most affected regions on Yemen’s west coast.

The meeting was held in southern city Aden.

Mohammad Al-Sharhan, the association chair, affirmed Kuwait’s role in creating a safer world.

He explained that Law No. 133, which extends the share of the university’s students, has contributed to notable improvements.

Some of the female graduates.

Their Highnesses the Amir, the Crown Prince, Speaker Al-Ghanim, HH the Prime Minister, senior state officials, graduates and citizens during the National Anthem.

HH the Amir sponsoring KU graduation ceremony.

HH the Amir being received.

HH the Prime Minister being received.

HH Sheikh Nasser being received.

Local

HH Amir sponsors KU graduation ceremony

Serve Kuwait with dedication for its promotion, unity: minister