The deep Mystic Blue is reminiscent of the sky reflecting the sea, while the Misty Lavender brings the elegance of purple and pink for a sunset beach inspired look. A unique combination of gloss and matte finishes, the two textures work hand in hand to create an intense visual effect, whilst also keeping away fingerprints and reducing the risk of shattering. Boasting a design that is both functional and stylish, the new look is a union of aesthetics and utility.

Still the ultimate flagship smartphone with a powerful camera

The Huawei P30 Pro was reputed for its powerful performance and unbeatable 40MP Super Sensing Leica Quad Camera setup. The new colors bring back the Huawei P30 Pro's unmatched 50x SuperZoom and its stunning low light photography capabilities.

However, it adds a few more features that gives even more reasons for the Huawei P30 Pro to remain the ultimate choice for a flagship smartphone.

The new Super Night Selfie Function brings powerful low-light capabilities to the front camera. It also lowers the brightness of light sources in the background, in turn improving other details for a more refined selfie at night. Other enhanced features include Huawei Vlog, which uses AI tools to help in editing videos to create perfect vlogs complete with music and effects, as well as Super Portrait Mode, which adds a professional blur effect to portrait shots.

EMUI 10* for intelligent living

By using intelligent features, EMUI 10* is aimed towards activating a more intelligent user experience. Users are promised a much more refined all-scenario smart experience which is designed on the basis of human factor research.

With a single tap, the phone and PC will connect via NFC, with the phone screen being streamed directly to the PC while also allowing users to control the display with external peripherals. Both phone and PC will have their displays working separately, also opening the doors for cross system sharing. With this feature, users can now drag and drop images, files, videos, documents and more between PCs and phones in no time. For example, while editing a document on the PC, users can simply drag and drop a photo from the phone and then share the final file across instant messaging platforms on the phone.

EMUI 10* brings to the table the unique Dark Mode that optimizes contrast and colors for a more comfortable user experience under different scenarios.
