LOS ANGELES, June 24, (Agency) - China's latest film event showed its highest box office figures in the Happy Film, "Castle of Dreams," and "Father's Counterfeit Life." The former grossed $120 million, while the latter took in $80 million.

The Shanghai prize was given to the film "The Tale of the Red Princess," which stars actress Yao Chen and is directed by Zhang Yimou. The film is a period piece set in the 1930s and follows the story of a young girl who becomes a princess.

The festival's closing ceremony counted even fewer stars than at past events, with only a handful of actors on stage. The event featured a special screening of the film "Castle of Dreams," which stars Yao Chen and is directed by Zhang Yimou.
