

Three things you can enjoy doing with this smartphone

Make your Ramadan special with Huawei P30 Pro

KUWAIT CITY, May 19: Ramadan is such a special occasion that we cherish and wait for every year. We love what it brings along including family gatherings at Iftar and Suhour. In this article, we are going to discover three things Huawei P30 Pro – the flagship champion and a phone that created quite a frenzy since its launch – offer to you to make the most of Ramadan.

Ramadan nights captured beautifully

While the streets during the daytime may be quiet, Ramadan nights are buzzing with activity. The city would be illuminated with stunning street lamps and Ramadan lanterns, the night markets hustling with shoppers and events popping up everywhere highlighting different aspects of Ramadan and offering unique experiences. Taking stunning images and videos at night time would not be an issue when you use the Leica Quad camera setup on the Huawei P30 Pro, which ensures crisp and clear shots even with minimum light.

Iftar seen from two sides:

With the Huawei P30 Pro dual-view feature that is launching within this month, you can take cool videos when you gather with your friends and family members around Iftar and capture these moments beautifully. Whether it is at home or in a public tent, you can now take two videos at the same time: one video showing the whole tent with the dangling Ramadan lanterns and the delicious Ramadan food, and on the other video you can zoom into your best friend while he's biting into that piece of cake – this fun and cool video feature enables you to record one scene but with two different perspectives!

Feature will be enabled via HOTA update at a later date.

Short of time in Ramadan? Ramadan is a busy month for all of us, between friends and family gatherings to the normal day-to-day things to do, work and other duties. We feel like as if time is flying by, and since smartphones are becoming part of our daily lives, you certainly need a phone that can keep up with all of that. Well! Huawei P30 Pro comes with a long-living 4,200mAh battery that lasts most of the day and can be charged up to 70 percent in just 30 minutes. You can even help your friends and family if their devices run out of battery, thanks to the Wireless Reverse Charge feature, provided they support Qi Wireless Charging.

No one has time for phones that lag right?! To make sure that your phone does not stutter or lag, the Huawei P30 Pro comes with powerful hardware to ensure a super smooth and improved performance while browsing Internet for the latest Iftar or suhour recipes or if you have some free moments during the day and would like to play your favorite video games. The Huawei P30 Pro also comes with a big storage of 256GB or 512GB to store all these Ramadan memories be it videos or photos and it is supported by 8GB of RAM for a fast phone experience.

KidZania welcomes Med-El at Family Day for cochlear implant community

KUWAIT CITY, May 19: KidZania Kuwait, the exciting kid-sized metropolis, welcomed MED-EL Medical Electronics by recently hosting a fun Family Day for all its cochlear implant users in Kuwait. The event took place at KidZania where the cochlear implant community along with their families connected in an engaging experiential learning environment full of fun activities for everyone.

The event commenced with a welcome note and presentation by the MED-EL Middle East management on awareness regarding hearing loss and valuable tips on how to make the most of the users hearing implants. Following that, there were many enjoyable activities for the kids from face painting to arts and crafts guaranteeing endless entertainment, coiled with an educational element in each activity. The children were also very excited to try out the limited time only space themed attractions as part of the Space Expedition variable program.

Tamer Al Shahat, Managing Director of MED-EL Middle East said: "We are very happy to host our first ever family fun day in Kuwait and we thank KidZania for helping us get the community together at a fun event. We believe it is essential that we raise awareness about hearing loss in the community as there are still some who are unaware of how well these solutions work. With cochlear implants the patient can immerse themselves in their community and be free to live a normal life. At KidZania, the families were not only entertained, but children were also educated on different life skills and learnt about the practicality of the work environment in a fun way."

Fernando Medroa, Vice-President of Leisure & Entertainment at Alshaya Group said: "We at KidZania are very happy to create a positive difference in our local community and support social welfare. This initiative falls under our corporate social responsibility framework giving importance to valuable engagement and supporting community causes. We are very happy to provide a platform for Med-EL to host this Family Fun Day for the cochlear implant users and bring the cochlear implant community together at KidZania."

The families were entertained with astounding shows and performances held by KidZania's six RightKeepers: Urbano, Vita, Chika, Beebop, Bekhaand Bache who promote the children's essential rights to know, to care, to share, to create, to be and to play. Children also enjoyed memorable photo opportunities with the RightKeepers.

KidZania sparks a kid's inquisitive mind and creativity and helps develop and implement their social, intellectual and professional skills in a fun and diverse work environment.
