'Red-hot' Isles drop Senators

Habs snap Bruins' win streak

NEW YORK, Nov 6, (RTRS): Cole Bardreau scored his first NHL goal – on a penalty shot – to give the red-hot New York Islanders the lead for good, when the Islanders ran their winning streak to 10 games with a 4-1 victory over the visiting Ottawa Senators.

Bardreau

Cal Clutterbuck, Casey Cizikas and Josh Bailey also scored for the Islanders, whose winning streak is the second-longest in team history behind only a 15-game run during the 1981-82 season, when New York won the third of four straight Stanley Cups. It is also the longest winning streak in the NHL since the Tampa Bay Lightning won 10 in a row from Feb 9-27, 2019.

Islanders goalie Thomas Greiss recorded 27 saves.

Jean-Gabriel Pageau scored for the Senators, who have alternated losses with wins over the last seven games. Ottawa's Craig Anderson made 28 saves.

Canadiens 5, Bruins 4

In Montreal, Ben Chiarot scored the tie-breaking goal in the third period as host Montreal snapped Boston's six-game winning streak.

ICE HOCKEY

Victor Mete scored twice, Tomas Tatar posted a goal and an assist, and Paul Byron also tallied for the Canadiens, who won for the fourth time in five games. Jeff Petry recorded two assists, Chiarot added an assist for a two-point night, and Canadiens goalie Carey Price made 21 saves.

Sharks 4, Blackhawks 2

In San Jose, California, Patrick Marleau scored a goal while becoming the sixth player in NHL history to play in 800 consecutive games and Timo Meier and Tomas Hertl both had a goal and an assist to lead hosts San Jose past Chicago.

Marleau joined Doug Jarvis (964), Garry Unger (914), Steve Larmer (884), Andrew Cogliano (830) and Keith Yandle (811) as the only players in NHL history to play in 800 consecutive games.

Golden Knights 2, Blue Jackets 1

In Columbus, Ohio, Reilly Smith scored two goals and Marc-Andre Fleury stopped 29 shots for his league-leading ninth victory as visiting Vegas snapped a two-game losing streak with a win.

It was the 15th career two-goal game for Smith, who has now scored against every team in the National Hockey League. William Karlsson added two assists to extend his points streak to five games and also reach 200 career points.

Flyers 4, Hurricanes 1

In Philadelphia, Sean Couturier and Claude Giroux each had a goal and an assist as Philadelphia cruised past Carolina to improve to 5-1-1 at home in the early season.

Travis Konecny and Joel Farabee each had one goal while Matt Niskanen registered two assists for the victorious

Flyers, who got 33 saves from goaltender Carter Hart.

Stars 4, Avalanche 1

In Dallas, Radek Faksa scored two goals and red-hot Dallas extended its winning streak to four with an easy win over visiting Colorado.

With a 7-1-0 record in their past eight games, the Stars have recovered from an ugly 1-7-1 start to the season. Two of the wins in Dallas' current four-game run have come against Colorado in the last five days.

Flames 4, Coyotes 3, OT

In Calgary, Alberta, Matthew Tkachuk scored twice, including the game winner, and added an assist as Calgary erased a late two-goal deficit and beat Arizona.

With 33.9 seconds remaining in overtime, Tkachuk appeared poised to send a pass across the crease, but instead ripped home a five-hole shot for the winning tally. Flames goalie David Ritich stopped 34 shots, including five in overtime, in the comeback victory.

Maple Leafs 3, Kings 1

In Toronto, Auston Matthews and William Nylander scored goals 30 seconds apart in the third period and Toronto defeated visiting Los Angeles.

Matthews jammed in his 12th goal of the season from the edge of the crease at 12:36 of the third period to snap a tie. Nylander and Andreas Johnson earned the assists.

Devils 2, Jets 1, SO

In Winnipeg, Manitoba, Nikita Gusev and Jesper Boqvist scored in the shootout, Mackenzie Blackwood made a sprawling pad save on Patrik Laine to end the game as visiting New Jersey snapped a seven-game losing streak to Winnipeg.

A month after blowing a 4-0 lead in a 5-4 home loss to Winnipeg in their season opener, the Devils improved to 2-0-0 on a five-game road trip and improved to 4-1-2 in their past seven games.

Blues 2, Canucks 1, OT

In Vancouver, Jaden Schwartz converted a 3-on-0 overtime break-in as visiting St Louis defeated Vancouver.

The Blues won for the seventh time in their last eight games. The Canucks have earned points in all six home games, going 4-0-2.

Wild 4, Ducks 2

In Anaheim, California, Eric Staal scored the go-ahead goal early in the third period as visiting Minnesota rallied from a two-goal deficit to beat Anaheim. Mats Zuccarello had a goal and an assist, and Kevin Fiala, Eric Staal and Zach Parise also scored for Minnesota. Wild goalie Alex Stalock made 29 saves in the victory as the Wild ended a three-game losing streak (0-2-1).
