Exhibition provides forecasts into rich Bedouin heritage

KUWAIT CITY, Sept 29, (KUNA): Kuwait’s State Audit Bureau (SAB) on Sunday launched a training course pertaining to the body’s social responsibility and in application of its motto “partners and monitors.”

SAB seeks the preservation of public funds through its monitoring tools, said the Bureau’s Assistant Undersecretary for Administrative, Financial and IT Affairs Essam Al-Mutairi during the launching ceremony, acknowledging shortcomings of internal auditing over time.

These discrepancies were pointed out by both the Cabinet and National Assembly, he indicated.

As for the three-month training course, lasting until January 9, 2020, Al-Mutairi said it includes internal auditors from the Central Bank of Kuwait, Kuwait Petroleum Corporation and the Commercial Bank of Kuwait among others, and comes in retaliation of SAB’s participation in a 20 strategy.

SAB’s establishment came to achieve effective control over public funds in order to protect them and guarantee their sound use through the establishment of internal auditing as stipulated in its establishment decree 35/1954 and amendments.

Meanwhile, Kuwaiti Ministry of Justice affirmed Sunday its eagerness in improving the business environment to lift up Kuwait’s international rankings, in light of achieving Kuwait’s 2015 vision. The ministry issued a press release after revealing that Kuwait has climbed the ranks of more than 20 nations with tangible improvements in Ease of Doing Business Index.

The ministry also noted that it has launched an online registration process.

It also discussed the draft agreement to receive emanate hate speech, adding that Kuwait submitted this draft to the justice minister’s meeting, Al-Afasi.

Al-Mutairi added that the SAB’s establishment came to achieve effective control over public funds in order to protect them and guarantee their sound use through the establishment of internal auditing as stipulated in its establishment decree 35/1954 and amendments.

Kuwaiti Minister of Justice and Minister of State for National Assembly Affairs Advisor Dr Faiq Bolkainy Al-Asali told KUNA that the 29th ministerial meeting discussed the evolution of mechanisms for guaranteeing the GCC countries, which was approved.

The meeting also discussed the role of Gulf judicial institutes in participating in preventive courses and exchanging experiences between the GCC states, adding that the establishment of a committee of judicial directors was approved to discuss cooperation mechanisms, Al-Asali added.

Kuwait’s draft to renounce hate speech discussed.

2019-2020 strategy.

KUWAIT CITY, Sept 29: The Supreme Council of Planning and Development (SCPD) headquarter.

Institute for Public Policies at the at University of Oxford and the Institute of Public Policy Research, said it includes internal auditing as stipulated in its establishment decree 35/1954 and amendments.

Kuwaiti Minister of Justice and Minister of State for National Assembly Affairs Advisor Dr Faiq Bolkainy Al-Asali told KUNA that the 29th ministerial meeting discussed the evolution of mechanisms for guaranteeing the GCC countries, which was approved.

The meeting also discussed the role of Gulf judicial institutes in participating in preventive courses and exchanging experiences between the GCC states, adding that the establishment of a committee of judicial directors was approved to discuss cooperation mechanisms, Al-Asali added.

Kuwait’s draft to renounce hate speech discussed.

2019-2020 strategy.

KUWAIT CITY, Sept 29: Concerned institutions eyeing 3rd Development Plan ‘20/25’

Kuwait has potentials to tackle digital transformation – SCPD

Kuwait has highly developed technical infrastructures in the IT technology, which are one of the most important factors that intensify its economic growth, and industry recently launched an automated banking project with the Ministry of Social Affairs concerning documents required to be submitted by the Ministry of Social Affairs, reports Al-Rai daily.

The sources pointed out that the orientation of the third development plan will be linked with the national strategic vision, in addition to improving programs that support creativity in various fields of creative work and the development of cultural infrastructure, and also intensive policy to care for creative work and support projects, Al-Afasi told KUNA.

Kuwait has highly developed technical infrastructures in the IT technology, which are one of the most important factors that intensify its economic growth, and industry recently launched an automated banking project with the Ministry of Social Affairs concerning documents required to be submitted by the Ministry of Social Affairs, reports Al-Rai daily.

The sources pointed out that the orientation of the third development plan will be linked with the national strategic vision, in addition to improving programs that support creativity in various fields of creative work and the development of cultural infrastructure, and also intensive policy to care for creative work and support projects, Al-Afasi told KUNA.

He added, "We will monitor the views of the ministries on the issue."