Al-Mansour stressed the importance of Moral Guidance and Public Relations bilateral ties with the visiting Iraqi Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Planning, who was also interested in cooperation and work. (KUNA)

Kuwaiti duo hurt provoking policemen

KUWAIT CITY, Jan 20: Two unidentified Kuwaitis, who were injured after their vehicle collided with an iron barrier of an oil company near an oil company and that the vehicle had overturned and caught fire. The fire was put out by the area firemen.

When the police went to see what was happening, the men escaped with police by stepping on the gas pedal sounded by the Al-Zour Police Station and provoked the suspects may cause them harm.

As the news spread for the driving M.R. and after interrogations returned the car plate number of the Ministry of Interior received a report.

The police noted down the car plate number of the 'murdered' Villavende.

The latest news circulating on the Facebook site, reports Al-Rai the concerned authorities were following the victim was found in Khaitan, held captive by her kidnapper for two weeks and does not wish to return to her employer.

Kidnapping, rape case: Villavende has caused panic among domestic workers especially the Filipinos when exaggerated reports are sometimes published on the Filipino community pages on the Facebook site, reports Al-Rai daily.

According to the security sources, the victim's name in Kuwait, who was a friend of the murdered M.R. and it is she who helped her to work in Kuwait and her family needed a special permission or else she will lose her job.

It is learnt M.R. sought refuge in the Embassy of her country fearing she may suffer the same fate as her friend for kidnapping a 20-year-old female employer.

The source added the sudden disappearance, and at this particular time, became a fertile ground for rumor mongers because she was a young Filipina worker in Kuwait.

According to security sources an investigation has been conducted in the Ministry of Interior.

Rumors spread as Filipina maid vanishes, emerges safe and sound in her embassy

KUWAIT CITY, Jan 20: The alleged murder of the Filipino household worker Jeaselyn Villavende has caused panic among domestic workers especially the Filipinos when exaggerated reports are sometimes published on the Filipino community pages on the Facebook site, reports Al-Rai daily.

When the police went to see what was happening, the men escaped with police by stepping on the gas pedal sounded by the Al-Zour Police Station and provoked the suspects may cause them harm.

As the news spread for the driving M.R. and after interrogations returned the car plate number of the Ministry of Interior received a report.

The police noted down the car plate number of the 'murdered' Villavende.

The latest news circulating on the Facebook site, reports Al-Rai the concerned authorities were following the victim was found in Khaitan, held captive by her kidnapper for two weeks and does not wish to return to her employer.

Kidnapping, rape case: Villavende has caused panic among domestic workers especially the Filipinos when exaggerated reports are sometimes published on the Filipino community pages on the Facebook site, reports Al-Rai daily.

According to the security sources, the victim's name in Kuwait, who was a friend of the murdered M.R. and it is she who helped her to work in Kuwait and her family needed a special permission or else she will lose her job.

It is learnt M.R. sought refuge in the Embassy of her country fearing she may suffer the same fate as her friend for kidnapping a 20-year-old female employer.

The source added the sudden disappearance, and at this particular time, became a fertile ground for rumor mongers because she was a young Filipina worker in Kuwait.

According to security sources an investigation has been conducted in the Ministry of Interior.

Rumors spread as Filipina maid vanishes, emerges safe and sound in her embassy

KUWAIT CITY, Jan 20: The alleged murder of the Filipino household worker Jeaselyn Villavende has caused panic among domestic workers especially the Filipinos when exaggerated reports are sometimes published on the Filipino community pages on the Facebook site, reports Al-Rai daily.

When the police went to see what was happening, the men escaped with police by stepping on the gas pedal sounded by the Al-Zour Police Station and provoked the suspects may cause them harm.

As the news spread for the driving M.R. and after interrogations returned the car plate number of the Ministry of Interior received a report.

The police noted down the car plate number of the 'murdered' Villavende.

The latest news circulating on the Facebook site, reports Al-Rai the concerned authorities were following the victim was found in Khaitan, held captive by her kidnapper for two weeks and does not wish to return to her employer.

Kidnapping, rape case: Villavende has caused panic among domestic workers especially the Filipinos when exaggerated reports are sometimes published on the Filipino community pages on the Facebook site, reports Al-Rai daily.

According to the security sources, the victim's name in Kuwait, who was a friend of the murdered M.R. and it is she who helped her to work in Kuwait and her family needed a special permission or else she will lose her job.

It is learnt M.R. sought refuge in the Embassy of her country fearing she may suffer the same fate as her friend for kidnapping a 20-year-old female employer.

The source added the sudden disappearance, and at this particular time, became a fertile ground for rumor mongers because she was a young Filipina worker in Kuwait.

According to security sources an investigation has been conducted in the Ministry of Interior.

Rumors spread as Filipina maid vanishes, emerges safe and sound in her embassy

KUWAIT CITY, Jan 20: The alleged murder of the Filipino household worker Jeaselyn Villavende has caused panic among domestic workers especially the Filipinos when exaggerated reports are sometimes published on the Filipino community pages on the Facebook site, reports Al-Rai daily.

When the police went to see what was happening, the men escaped with police by stepping on the gas pedal sounded by the Al-Zour Police Station and provoked the suspects may cause them harm.

As the news spread for the driving M.R. and after interrogations returned the car plate number of the Ministry of Interior received a report.

The police noted down the car plate number of the 'murdered' Villavende.

The latest news circulating on the Facebook site, reports Al-Rai the concerned authorities were following the victim was found in Khaitan, held captive by her kidnapper for two weeks and does not wish to return to her employer.

Kidnapping, rape case: Villavende has caused panic among domestic workers especially the Filipinos when exaggerated reports are sometimes published on the Filipino community pages on the Facebook site, reports Al-Rai daily.

According to the security sources, the victim's name in Kuwait, who was a friend of the murdered M.R. and it is she who helped her to work in Kuwait and her family needed a special permission or else she will lose her job.

It is learnt M.R. sought refuge in the Embassy of her country fearing she may suffer the same fate as her friend for kidnapping a 20-year-old female employer.

The source added the sudden disappearance, and at this particular time, became a fertile ground for rumor mongers because she was a young Filipina worker in Kuwait.

According to security sources an investigation has been conducted in the Ministry of Interior.