KUWAIT CITY, June 21: Salim Al-Khalidi said that no government that has not taken significant decisions will be able to fully control the spread of the new coronavirus in the face of open challenges and international pressures. "This decision is needed, and many countries have already taken the necessary decisions in the face of the invisible enemy," he said.

"The decision comes in response to reports from the World Health Organization and its country representatives about the spread of the virus in the world, especially in the Gulf States. COVID-19 is a virus that has not yet found a cure, and we are facing a true war," he said.

"This decision is needed, because the countries that have not taken such decisions have not taken precautions. They have not closed their borders, and they have not taken any measures to control the virus. This is what we are facing now, and we must take the necessary decisions to control the virus," he added.

The Minister said that the decision was taken after consultations with the Ministry of Health and the Ministry of Information, and after receiving advice from specialists and experts.

"The decision is a necessary one, and it is based on scientific and professional advice. It is a decision that will help us control the spread of the virus and protect the lives of our citizens," he said.

"This decision is not taken lightly, and it is based on scientific and professional advice. It is a decision that will help us control the spread of the virus and protect the lives of our citizens," he added.

The Minister said that the government will take all necessary measures to ensure the implementation of the decision. He said that the government will provide all necessary support to ensure the implementation of the decision.
