Bahrain ‘airs’ advent of new era

By Ahmed Al-Jarallah

ALMIGHTY Allāh says in the Holy Quran: “O you who believe! If an evil-doer comes to you with news, verify it, and speak the truth, for Allah loves those who are truthful (Quran 49:6).

Given that we are not like what the devil-desires claims, we are in terms of altering disbelievers narrations, we ask those who strive to be fact-acclimated, – What does Ahmed Al-Jarallah think of terrorism and its signs? What does Ahmed Al-Jarallah think of the upcoming era in Bahrain? – These are questions we ask Ahmed Al-Jarallah, because he is a fighter for decades; in whatever way we can. We bring to you and those around you seek to divide. In the air of life. We do not differ-bind the disbelief with its friends and protect the nation from its fiends.

What was published was a picture of the master of the believers – Aisha (May Allāh be pleased with her). She was one of the Messenger of Allāh (May Allāh be pleased with him) friends and was among those who disliked those who disliked them. She was one of the people who disliked those who disliked her. She was among those who disliked those who disliked her. She was among those who disliked those who disliked her. She was one of the people who disliked those who disliked her.

Flights from ban nations still on hold

KUWAIT CITY, Sept 5: Kuwaiti Union of Domestic Workers (KUDDW) said it has no plans to suspend flights to certain countries.

KUDDW chairman Ali Al-Mutawa said he has no plans to suspend flights to certain countries as requested by the Kuwaiti government.

"We are in contact with aviation companies and we have not received any official notification to suspend flights to certain countries," Al-Mutawa told Al-Shbiba.

"The suspension of flights to certain countries is an unwise decision as it will affect the labor market, especially in the domestic sector," he added.

"We have been working on the issue of flight suspensions for a long time, and we have been in contact with the relevant authorities to try to avoid any negative impact on the labor market," he said.

According to Al-Mutawa, the suspension of flights to certain countries was not due to any health concerns, but rather due to political decisions taken by some countries.

"We have been working on the issue of flight suspensions for a long time, and we have been in contact with the relevant authorities to try to avoid any negative impact on the labor market," he said.

LOYAC – source of pride

By Ahmad alsharif

I read the first sentence of the first book I ever read, and the LOYAC Foundation showed me it was a book that had already become a source of pride for any citizen or resident of Kuwait.

The ‘LOYAC’ Foundation, a non-profit organization that has been active since 2005, has been in the forefront of helping in the fight against crime and the spread of corruption in the country. It has been active in helping in the fight against disaster and hardness, and has lived without discrimination of religion, color, race, or creed, and women have played an active role in its activities.

LOYAC’s main vision is to create a positive and constructive atmosphere in Kuwaiti society by providing a variety of programs to address the mental, emotional, spiritual, and material needs of all inhabitants of both sexes, and to instill a culture of participation in their instead of consumption and citizenship.

LOYAC runs several professional development programs, focusing on personal growth, and helping young people find a better direction in their lives. Today, after 10 years of hard and fruitful work, LOYAC has managed to become part of the life world and spread the value of peace. By involving the youth and providing them with guidance and qualifications, the organization helps them to become a positive and constructive man.

A group of their leaders responded to the remarkable call to share their stories in the hearts of young people, in order to guide them to a better world and spread the value of peace. They presented a series of programs that are the result of a series of workshops and qualification courses, and contributed to the promotion of a constructive and constructive movement, and to create a positive and constructive atmosphere in Kuwaiti society.

According to the organization’s leaders, it is the first time that LOYAC has decided to invite over 23 citizens and residents to their homes to present their stories and to invite as well to donate to the LOYAC and the Red Crescent Society.

KUWAIT CITY, Sept 5 (KX) - Three (30) kilos of hashish were seized by members of the Drug Control (GDDC) and the Court of Appeal.

According to a security source, police plan to identify two people who were involved in that crime.

The victim’s losses were of a practical and material nature. The victims, who are all employees of local banks, hold an average of KD 5,000 in their accounts. The victim has no evidence that the defendants used their right of autonomy within the limits of the bank's directives, nor do they have the right to make donations to society.

The LOYAC and the Red Crescent Society.

LOYAC established a graduate bursary fund to help the employment of the victims.

The Criminal Court ruled that the defendant be fined for two years and sentenced to prison. The judge also sentenced three defendants to fine 5,000 dinars each in the course of 30 days.

In 2018, the first connected version of the Big Bang made its big debut. And now, Havana unveils the BIG BANGE

The new incarnation of the brand’s Art of Fusion ethos: a fusion between tradition and innovation, cutting edge materials and the latest digital technology.

To mark the 2018 Football World Cup in Russia, Havana presented its first connected watch model, the Big Bang Relena 2018 FIFA World Cup Russia™. Equipped with the latest technological plans available for wearable technology, this inimitable timepiece was sold both online on the brand’s site and by football fans, as a virtual student on that very day. Two years later, Havana returns to a new model: the BIG BANG, a connected watch equipped with the latest technology that adapts all the iconic Big Bang codes. To stop everything, follow: @HavanaBigBang

Black Ceramic

Electronic watches were created in Switzerland using quartz in the 1970s. Fifty years later, how are we continuing in the same innovative vein by producing a second smart watch which boasts an extremely high level of technological sophistication, while embedding all the aesthetic values, technical features and excellence that have ensured the reputation of our Big Bang collection. Even more faithful to our “Art of Fusion” moto, we wanted to BIG BANGE to sum Havana’s highest advanced technical materials with the very latest innovations from today’s digital world.

Ricardo Guadalupe
CEO of HUBLOT

Full of sophistication and advanced technology, this piece fits in perfectly with Havana’s watchmaking tradition. All the hours that have helped build this brand’s reputation thus far can be recognized instantly by enthusiasts and the public alike. A good prodigy always shines through! This case is cut from materials such as Black ceramic or titanium in a ‘thin-layer’ design. This innovation has been developed in 2018. Very complex, it comprises 62 components, 37 of which are for the Thin Block, a ‘cage’ which houses the digital heart of the表. This mechanical and digital imaginative fusion of the minute, the second and the hour is developed in 2018.

The BIG BANGE is available in a 42 mm case, made from a mixture of titanium or ceramic. The four petals are made out of the four different materials: ceramic, titanium, ceramic and its rubber strap - with deployant buckle invented by Havana in 1980 for the Classic and the plain BIG BANG- for any easy interchangeability - leave only one element, essential element, that is what makes the BIG BANG!

The BIG BANGE is equipped with a high-resolution screen with a clear display of all the information needed to navigate through the watch’s various modes. The screen is highly resistant against scratches and therefore protects the watch from any external shocks. The display is made up of a 1GB microchip and is capable of displaying an image of a second GMT or moon phase, which is carried out in the digital world. This capability allows the user to customize the watch and be able to interact with it.

In 2018, the first connected version of the Big Bang made its big debut. And now, Havana unveils the BIG BANGE — The new incarnation of the brand’s Art of Fusion ethos: a fusion between tradition and innovation, cutting edge materials and the latest digital technology.

DP World, Canada fund to invest $4.5bn in global ports

DUBAI, Sept 5, (AP): International port operator DP World reached a deal with one of Canada’s biggest pension-fund managers to pour an additional $4.5 billion into their joint venture of ports and terminals. The new capital signals a major push to expand and brings the total amount invested by one of the world’s largest port operators and Canadian infrastructure investor Caisse de Dépôt et Placement du Québec to $8.2 billion.

It also comes as DP World, grappling with an economic downturn worsened by the coronavirus pandemic, delists itself from trading to become a fully private, government-owned firm. DP World and CDPQ agreed in 2016 to invest in 10 port terminals across the world. DP World said the new agreement would “broaden its footprint” in areas where it already operates and terminals in Europe and Asia Pacific. DP World has a 55% share in the fund, while CDPQ holds the remaining 45%.

DP World runs operations as far east as Brisbane, Australia, and as far west as Prince Rupert, Canada. The company has expanded aggressively into East Africa, helping the Emirati government wield influence farther afield.

But with the COVID-19 pandemic shutting borders and disrupting global supply chains, DP World’s profits fell 56% during the first half of the year. Months before, DP World started delisting from the Dubai stock exchange, returning the company to full state-owned status to help the Dubai government’s investment company repay more than $5 billion to banks. DP World ultimately will be held by a wholly owned subsidiary of Dubai World, a government investment company.

As countries around the world reopen for business, representatives from DP World and CDPQ said they remain cautiously optimistic about the venture.

“Even during a uniquely challenging period ... the ports sector has demonstrated a fair degree of resilience,” said Emmanuel Jaclo, CDPQ’s executive vice president and head of infrastructure.

Lexus Design Award 2021 . . Call for Entries Now Open

Lexus has recently launched the Lexus Design Award 2021 and is calling on talented creators from around the world to submit their entries to its annual design competition. Now in its ninth edition, the prestigious award offers a unique platform for aspiring designers to develop and showcase their talents on the global stage.

Established in 2013, the program continues to evolve and inspire innovations in design from emerging creators whose works can lead to a better future. Lexus remains committed to supporting tomorrow’s talented designers by providing a launch pad for their careers that offers world-class mentoring, prototype funding, and unparalled international exposure.

Every year, the event attracts thousands of entries from around the world. The proposals submitted span a diverse collection of disciplines, ranging from industrial design, architecture, and engineering to interior design and fashion design. Applicants are encouraged to develop innovative concepts and imaginative solutions that highlight the creative interplay between design and technology.

One Grand Prix winner will be selected from among six finalists by an esteemed judging panel of today’s most influential figures in art, design, and technology. Past judges have included renowned luminaries Paolo Antontelli, Ariana Chaim, and Sir David Adjaye. The judges’ decisions will be based on three key principles of the Lexus Brand: Anticipate, Innovate, and Convert, with an emphasis on design that leads to a better tomorrow.

“We are delighted to launch the 2021 edition of the Lexus Design Award and invite emerging creatives to share their visions with the world. The Award represents a unique opportunity for talented young designers to transform their ideas into exciting new possibilities with the help of seasoned industry experts,” said Kai Fujita, Chief Representative, Middle East and Central Asia Representative Office, Toyota Motor Corporation. “What the boundaries and beyond the conventional are at the heart of Lexus’ approach to design, and these awards underline our commitment to inspiring the great minds of tomorrow to anticipate the future and create amazing experiences. I would like to extend my gratitude to design enthusiasts around the world for their continuous support, which contributes to the award’s success and serves as powerful motivation in our quest to uncover creative solutions to tomorrow’s challenges through brave design.”

In early 2021, Lexus will announce the six finalists who will go on to participate in a workshop with world-class design professionals acting as mentors. Each participant will receive up to JPY 5 million (over US$25,000) to develop their designs into physical prototypes, and will also benefit from continual follow-up and advice. Mentors confirmed for this year’s program include Nigerian architect Mairiam Kamara, Dutch designer Sabine Marcelis, and the sought-after American creative and entrepreneur Joe Doucet.

The Lexus Design Award will conclude with the announcement of the Grand Prix winner following the presentation of prototypes by each of the six finalists on a world stage during Press Day at Milan Design Week 2021. The judges for Lexus Design Award 2021 include Paolo Antontelli, Senior Curator of Architecture & Design at The Museum of Modern Art, and Simon Humphries, Head of Lexus Global Design. They will be joined by two additional judges whose identities have yet to be revealed. The complete list of Lexus Design Award 2021 judges and mentors will be announced in the fall of 2020.

Entries to the Lexus Design Award 2021 competition will be accepted through October 11, 2020. Please check our site to discover Lexus highlights and exciting-open-for-lexus-design-award-2021 for more information.

From Venice, a plea to reopen movie theaters shot by virus

VENICE, Sept 5, (AP): Spanish director Pedro Almodovar has joined a chorus of voices at the Venice Film Festival urging the reopening of movie theaters after a year of closure due to the coronavirus pandemic.

"I know very well how an audience reacts to a movie, both when they enter and when they leave," Almodovar said of the screening of his film "Edgar" at the festival on Saturday.

The film, which has its world premiere at the festival, tells the story of a man and woman who fall in love while attending a festival in Spain.

"I believe in the magic of the cinema," Almodovar said. "I believe in the power of the audience."
Top-ranked Djokovic extends winning streak

Ferrari struggle

BAKALMOR, Sept. 5 (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles ended their 19-game losing streak against the New York Yankees, using a strong defensive performance by rookie Ryan Mountcastle in a 6-3 victory Friday night for a doubleheader split.

In the opener, Miguel Andújar singled in the 10th run for New York in its fifth win in six games.

Orioles manager Brandon Hyde said Mountcastle was in the lineup because he had a good arm and he was a versatile defender.

In the 10th, Mountcastle was chosen to start at shortstop to give Baltimore an option if the Yankees scored more runs.

The Orioles took a 1-0 lead in the first on an RBI single by Cedric Mullins. Andújar’s shot off of Caleb Ferguson (2-0) extended his hitting streak to six games.

Shedaresthedevil was fresh off a 21-year-old Devich Garcia in second in-ning of the night and sparked a four-run fifth inning with an RBI single off left-hander Blaine Boyer.

Shedaresthedevil also drove in two more runs for the Yankees.

The game was part of the four-game series in which the Yankees swept the Orioles.

Shedaresthedevil hit his first career grand slam, the 10th of his major league career.

Djokovic extended winning streak

Top-ranked Novak Djokovic extended his winning streak to 29 matches with a straight-set victory over No. 28 seed Jan-Lennard Struff in the fourth round of the US Open on Wednesday.

Djokovic lost only two games in a 6-3, 6-3, 6-1 victory over Struff, who was making his first appearance at Flushing Meadows since 2011.

The win came after Djokovic returned from seven weeks off because of the coronavirus pandemic.

A four-time US Open champion, Djokovic said he was happy to be back on court.

The US Open was postponed from May along with the French Open because of the pandemic.

Barca fans reassured after Messi says he will stay

ESPN, BARCELONA, Spain Sept 5, (AP)—Barcelona fans breathed a collective sigh of relief Tuesday after Lionel Messi said he would stay at the club for now to avoid a potential football exodus during the winter window.

Messi said he met with Bartomeu and confirmed his commitment to the club after the Spanish league said it would halt the season for two weeks due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The move came a day after the club announced it was selling 20% of its La Liga and Copa del Rey rights to Chinese investors in a deal worth up to $1 billion.

In a statement released Tuesday, Messi said he has "now had the time to reflect and consider the situation in its entirety." The 33-year-old Argentine has been at the heart of Barcelona's success over the past decade but has not signed a new contract with the club since 2017.

"Barcelona is a family," he said. "A family that has united me with my father and my mother since I was little, and I also received a large bunch of photos of Messi on the front page of newspapers when I was young." He added: "As a Barca supporter I follow the club’s history, but I am now sure that I can continue here and that I am important."
