UN warns of famine in war-torn Yemen

By Ahmed Al-Jarallah

The Parliament has abandoned its ba-ner of unity and its adherence to the Parliament’s governing executive authority
The government is in trouble and the government has lost its way.The government is not doing its job and the government is not fulfilling its duties.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
government has lost its way.

The government is in trouble and the
