refugees.

He expressed his pride in concluding the partnership with the Kuwait Red Crescent Society for the execution of qualitative human and relief programs.

Al-Rushood emphasized that KFH always considers social and human work as a priority. He added that the relief initiatives were and still at the top of its schedule, thus referring to the several successful programs of cooperation with the Kuwait Red Crescent Society inside and outside Kuwait. These programs have proved KFH leading and pioneering position in social responsibility and the long and distinguished record of social initiatives and achievements.

Meanwhile, HRH Princess Ghida Talal, Chairperson of King Hussein Cancer Foundation in Jordan, expressed her appreciation and gratitude to the State of Kuwait and to KFH initiative to support King Hussein Cancer Center as part of its social and relief efforts.

From her side, Al-Barjas praised and appreciated KFH social and relief efforts and stated that the present cooperation between the Kuwait Red Crescent Society and King Hussein Cancer Center goes back to 2016 as the treatment expenses of many cancer patients were covered.
