'Agreement on amnesty to be general'

KUWAIT CITY, Oct 9: In light of the continuation of the national dialogue and initial data indicating that the dialogue is proceeding as planned, the government is expected to submit its resignation if the dialogue succeeds such that the grilling motions against it are automatically dropped and a new page is opened between the legislative and executive authorities according to constitutional, legal and political bases, reports Annahar daily quoting a parliamentary source.

The source disclosed that the data so far indicate the agreement on the amnesty will be general and according to clear articles without specifying names. Conditions will be laid down and whoever meets these conditions will be granted amnesty, the source added.

Opinion

According to the source, the conditions are related to expressing political opinion and criminal cases with political background; pointing out this applies to the case of those involved in storming the National Assembly building who are currently in Turkey, London and other countries.

On the other hand, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Interior Sheikh Thamer Al-Ali responded to the query of MP Marzouq Al-Khalifa about the bonuses and allowances for airport security inspection staff; clarifying that these employees are not entitled to the screen allowance.

He said the decision of the Civil Service Commission (CSC) to grant allowance to Kuwaitis working on screens connected to automated systems throughout the official working hours does not apply to the airport security staff; as it was found the latter work on screens for inspecting passengers' bags and personal belongings, not the screens specified in the decision. The minister added that the CSC approved the KD35 infection allowance for airport security inspectors.

Kuwait's Martyrs Office wins silver at 4th Jordan Arab Media Festival

AMMAN, Oct 9, (KUNA): The Martyrs' Office of the Kuwaiti Amiri Diwan won the silver prize at the fourth Jordan Arab Media Festival, which concluded recently with the participation of Arab media and artistic figures and institutions.

The Martyr's Office received the award for its work 'From My Father's Wind' in the category (TV Programs - Security Media, which witnessed the work of the Jordanian Armed Forces 'Our Arab Army' receiving the golden award and the work of the Jordanian Public Security Directorate 'Al-Ain Al-Sahira' the bronze award.

The Ministry of Defense and Interior in Kuwait also participated in the festival with a work prepared by the Directorate of Moral Guidance and Public Relations of the General Staff of the Army, entitled 'The participation of the Kuwaiti Air Force in relief work' and the film 'Electronic bracelet' prepared by the General Administration of Relations and Security Media in Interior Ministry, in addition to the work of another Kuwaiti prepared by the Martyr's Office entitled 'The Martyrs'.

The former media advisor in the Kuwaiti Ministries of Defense and Interior, retired Lieutenant General Abdulaziz Al-Rais told Kuwait News Agency (KUNA) after receiving the award that Kuwaiti participation this year aims to shed light on the role of specialized and thoughtful media in dealing with community issues and guiding its members within a framework of responsibility and awareness.

Al-Rays added that the selected Kuwaiti works included instructive messages that were worked on by the cadres of the Ministries of Defense and Interior and the Office of the Martyr which resulted in the winning of one of them amid competition from several Arab peers.

He expressed his thanks and appreciation to the festival's Supreme Committee for choosing Jerusalem as the title of the current session and focusing its activities on intellectual and dialogue sessions in support of the Palestinian cause, which Kuwait and other Arab countries put at the forefront of the nation's issues.

For his part, a member of the festival's Supreme Committee, Dr Ziad Al-Khidr, praised in a statement to KUNA the "successful" Kuwaiti participation in the festival and its enrichment of the festival's activities, pointing out that the Kuwaiti work 'From My Father's Wind' actually deserved to win the award due to the integration of its elements characterized by proficiency and the superiority of its creative content. Regarding the selection of 'Jerusalem' as a title for the current session of the festival, Al-Khidr stressed the importance of crystallizing an Arab media vision in the face of the continuous Israeli attacks on holy sites in Jerusalem, calling for the importance of employing Arab efforts to support the Palestinian cause in the media and highlighting Jerusalem in the Arab media industry.
