Blues top Golden Knights 3-1 to complete 3-0 trip

PHILADELPHIA, Oct 21, (AP): Cam Atkinson scored two goals, including the go-ahead score that sent him tumbling into the boards, in the Philadelphia Flyers' 6-3 victory over the Boston Bruins.

The Flyers have won two straight since dropping the season opener and a revamped roster has paid early dividends. Atkinson, acquired in a deal with Columbus, had the crowd going wild on his hustle-and-tumble goal only 58 seconds into the third for a 4-3 lead. Joel Farabee picked off a pass from Mike Reilly and fed to his right to a streaking Atkinson. Atkinson got tripped up and slid back first into the boards.

Travis Konecny beat Jeremy Swayman from the slot to make it 5-3 and had the crowd chanting "Let's Go Flyers!" Sean Couturier knocked in an empty-netter, making it the second straight game the Flyers scored six goals.

Farabee, Scott Laughton also scored for Philadelphia. Martin Jones stopped 37 shots in his first start of the season after signing a $2 million, one-year deal to serve as Carter Hart's backup.

Karson Kuhlman, Taylor Hall and Brad Marchand scored for Boston.

and Brandon Saad and Ivan Barbashev added goals for the Blues. St. Louis won all three games on its season-opening trip, also beating Colorado 5-3 and Arizona 7-4.

William Karlsson opened the scoring for the Golden Knights, and Robin Lehner made 35 saves.

On the tiebreaking goal, former Blues captain Alex Pietrangolo turned the puck over in the neutral zone with a blind pass, giving the Blues a 3-on-0 rush. Taking a pass from Brayden Schenn, Jordan Kyrou fed Tarasenko for a one-timer past Lehner with 10:11 to play.

The Golden Knights didn't get their first shot on goal until nearly seven minutes into the game, then took the lead on Karlsson's goal. After Reilly Smith drew him to one side, Binnington slid across the crease to deny Karlsson's initial one-timer, but he punched home his own rebound.

The Blues eventually solved Lehner in the second period with their continued pressure in the offensive zone. Ryan O'Reilly dropped the puck off for former Knight David Perron, whose initial shot deflected off Vegas defenseman Shea Theodore to set up Saad as he skated in. Saad, who signed with St. Louis as a free agent in July, buried his first goal as a member of the Blues.

Barbashev had an empty-net goal.

FRISCO, Texas, Oct. 21, (AP): Cristian Arango's hat trick, which included two goals four minutes apart late in the second half, led LAFC over a Ricardo Pepi-less FC Dallas team 3-2.

Pepi did not play after injuring a foot last week in the U.S. national team's win over Costa Rica.

Arango tied it at 1 in the 33rd minute on a penalty kick that goalkeeper Phelipe Megiolaro got a hand on but the ball rolled over the line. Arango had a sliding finish of Daniel Musovski's pass to tie it at 2 in the 75th, and then gave LAFC its first lead four minutes later.
