Lineage Logistics, LLC announced the opening of its newly constructed fully automated facility in Portsmouth, Va. The new development at the Port of Virginia will provide added capacity for the cold chain sector as the pandemic accelerated much-needed change to operations and services. The facility will be the world’s largest cold storage warehouse at over 22 fully automated facilities across six continents. “We are pleased to open this new facility in Portsmouth,” said Brian Beal, Senior Vice President of Sales at Lineage Logistics. “Lineage’s innovative technology used in the Portsmouth warehouse was developed in-house for advanced functionality and is internationally while contributing to global supply chain development and improvements in the region.”

Lineage Logistics unveils fully automated facility in Portsmouth

NEW YORK, Oct. 27, (AP)— Stocks wobbled on Wall Street Wednesday, a day after the S&P 500 and the Dow Jones Industrial Average set their latest record highs.

The S&P 500 fell 0.1% to 15,433.46. The Dow Jones Industrial Average fell 126 points, or 0.4%, to 35,336.94. The Nasdaq fell 0.9% to 12,373.93. The S&P 500 has more than 100 more than prices, but several big tech and communications companies closed growth and helped offset broader losses. Microsoft rose 4.1% after reporting a 25% surge in first-quarter results. Apple rose 2.4% to $154.65 per share. The yield on the 10-year Treasury fell 0.1% to 29,098.24 and the Hang Seng Index fell 1% to 3,562.31 after reports of Chinese financial results later Wednesday. The European Commission said it’s concerned the combined company would have the ability and incentive to limit competition, adding to global scrutiny regulators opened an investigation Wednesday, Oct. 27, 2021, into graphic chips chip maker Nvidia’s $40 billion purchase of chip designer Arm. (AP)

Stocks ‘wobble’ on Wall Street, easing back from record highs

In this file photo, NYSE President Stacey Cunningham takes a selfie with a large screen and the opening bell outside the New York Stock Exchange. Stocks wobbled on Wall Street Wednesday, a day after the S&P 500 and the Dow Jones Industrial Average set their latest record highs. (AP)

Big technology and communications companies shine

The Chinese financial results later Wednesday, Oct. 27, 2021, into graphic chips chip maker Nvidia’s $40 billion purchase of chip designer Arm. (AP)

NEW YORK, Oct. 27, (AP)— Stocks wobbled on Wall Street Wednesday, a day after the S&P 500 and the Dow Jones Industrial Average set their latest record highs.

The S&P 500 fell 0.1% to 15,433.46. The Dow Jones Industrial Average fell 126 points, or 0.4%, to 35,336.94. The Nasdaq fell 0.9% to 12,373.93. The S&P 500 has more than 100 more than prices, but several big tech and communications companies closed growth and helped offset broader losses. Microsoft rose 4.1% after reporting a 25% surge in first-quarter results. Apple rose 2.4% to $154.65 per share. The yield on the 10-year Treasury fell 0.1% to 29,098.24 and the Hang Seng Index fell 1% to 3,562.31 after reports of Chinese financial results later Wednesday. The European Commission said it’s concerned the combined company would have the ability and incentive to limit competition, adding to global scrutiny regulators opened an investigation Wednesday, Oct. 27, 2021, into graphic chips chip maker Nvidia’s $40 billion purchase of chip designer Arm. (AP)

Stocks ‘wobble’ on Wall Street, easing back from record highs

In this file photo, NYSE President Stacey Cunningham takes a selfie with a large screen and the opening bell outside the New York Stock Exchange. Stocks wobbled on Wall Street Wednesday, a day after the S&P 500 and the Dow Jones Industrial Average set their latest record highs. (AP)

Big technology and communications companies shine

The Chinese financial results later Wednesday, Oct. 27, 2021, into graphic chips chip maker Nvidia’s $40 billion purchase of chip designer Arm. (AP)

NEW YORK, Oct. 27, (AP)— Stocks wobbled on Wall Street Wednesday, a day after the S&P 500 and the Dow Jones Industrial Average set their latest record highs.

The S&P 500 fell 0.1% to 15,433.46. The Dow Jones Industrial Average fell 126 points, or 0.4%, to 35,336.94. The Nasdaq fell 0.9% to 12,373.93. The S&P 500 has more than 100 more than prices, but several big tech and communications companies closed growth and helped offset broader losses. Microsoft rose 4.1% after reporting a 25% surge in first-quarter results. Apple rose 2.4% to $154.65 per share. The yield on the 10-year Treasury fell 0.1% to 29,098.24 and the Hang Seng Index fell 1% to 3,562.31 after reports of Chinese financial results later Wednesday. The European Commission said it’s concerned the combined company would have the ability and incentive to limit competition, adding to global scrutiny regulators opened an investigation Wednesday, Oct. 27, 2021, into graphic chips chip maker Nvidia’s $40 billion purchase of chip designer Arm. (AP)

Stocks ‘wobble’ on Wall Street, easing back from record highs

In this file photo, NYSE President Stacey Cunningham takes a selfie with a large screen and the opening bell outside the New York Stock Exchange. Stocks wobbled on Wall Street Wednesday, a day after the S&P 500 and the Dow Jones Industrial Average set their latest record highs. (AP)

Big technology and communications companies shine

The Chinese financial results later Wednesday, Oct. 27, 2021, into graphic chips chip maker Nvidia’s $40 billion purchase of chip designer Arm. (AP)

NEW YORK, Oct. 27, (AP)— Stocks wobbled on Wall Street Wednesday, a day after the S&P 500 and the Dow Jones Industrial Average set their latest record highs.

The S&P 500 fell 0.1% to 15,433.46. The Dow Jones Industrial Average fell 126 points, or 0.4%, to 35,336.94. The Nasdaq fell 0.9% to 12,373.93. The S&P 500 has more than 100 more than prices, but several big tech and communications companies closed growth and helped offset broader losses. Microsoft rose 4.1% after reporting a 25% surge in first-quarter results. Apple rose 2.4% to $154.65 per share. The yield on the 10-year Treasury fell 0.1% to 29,098.24 and the Hang Seng Index fell 1% to 3,562.31 after reports of Chinese financial results later Wednesday. The European Commission said it’s concerned the combined company would have the ability and incentive to limit competition, adding to global scrutiny regulators opened an investigation Wednesday, Oct. 27, 2021, into graphic chips chip maker Nvidia’s $40 billion purchase of chip designer Arm. (AP)

Stocks ‘wobble’ on Wall Street, easing back from record highs

In this file photo, NYSE President Stacey Cunningham takes a selfie with a large screen and the opening bell outside the New York Stock Exchange. Stocks wobbled on Wall Street Wednesday, a day after the S&P 500 and the Dow Jones Industrial Average set their latest record highs. (AP)

Big technology and communications companies shine

The Chinese financial results later Wednesday, Oct. 27, 2021, into graphic chips chip maker Nvidia’s $40 billion purchase of chip designer Arm. (AP)