Dodgers beat Braves in Freeman return

NEW YORK, June 25, (AP): Justin Verlander pitched four-hit ball over seven innings, Kyle Tucker hit a three-run homer and the Houston Astros beat the Yankees 3-1 Friday night to stop New York's 15-game home winning streak.

Hours after Aaron Judge agreed to a $19 million, one-year contract with the Yankees that avoided an arbitration hearing, New York was greeted with loud ovations by just its third home sellout crowd this season. Judge went 0 for 4 as the major league-best Yankees (52-19) lost for just the fourth time in their last 23 games overall.

Verlander (9-3) averaged 95.5 mph with his fastball, up from 94.8 mph coming in during his first season since Tommy John surgery. The 39-year-old right-hander struck out three and walked one, lowering his ERA to 2.22.

tional return to Atlanta and Los Angeles beat the Braves.

Julio Urias (5-6) handed the Braves just their fourth loss in June, allowing one run on three hits with nine strikeouts in six innings. Craig Kimbrel gave up a leadoff hit in the ninth to Matt Olson, but recovered with three quick outs to earn his 13th save in 14 chances.

Freeman had one hit, a sixth-inning single. He walked twice and scored two runs.

Mets 5, Marlins 3

In Miami, Francisco Lindor homered, doubled and drove in four runs to lead New York past Miami.

Mark Canha also went deep and Taijuan Walker pitched six-plus innings of three-run ball for the NL East leaders. Walker (6-2) allowed eight hits, walked two and struck out five. Edwin Díaz worked around two singles in a scoreless ninth for his 15th save.

Miami starter Sandy Alcantara (7-3), who entered with a 1.72 ERA, gave up five runs - four earned - and six hits in seven innings. The right-hander has gone at least seven innings in nine straight outings.

Padres 1, Phillies 0

In San Diego, Austin Nola hit an RBI single off younger brother Aaron in the sixth inning, and San Diego edged Philadelphia.

It's the first time since RBIs became an official stat in 1920 that a player had an RBI against his brother in a 1-0 victory, according to STATS.

BASEBALL

Kenzie Gore and three relievers combined on a five-hitter. Nabil Crismatt (4-0) pitched two perfect innings for the win. Luis Garcia struck out the heart of the order in the eighth. Closer Taylor Rogers loaded the bases with two outs in the ninth before getting Kyle Schwarber to fly out to center field.

Orioles 4, White Sox 1

In Chicago, Austin Voth and four relievers combined on a one-hitter, Jorge Mateo had a heated exchange with White Sox starter Michael Kopech after getting nailed by a pitch and Baltimore beat Chicago.

Voth, normally a reliever, went three innings in his second start. He gave up an RBI double to Jake Burger in the second for Chicago's only hit.

perfect innings before Bryan Baker and Cionel Pérez each got four outs. Jorge López pitched the ninth for his 13th save, helping the Orioles win their third straight and fourth in five games.

The only real drama occurred in the second inning after Kopech (2-4) retired the first two batters. He nailed Mateo near the left shoulder and upper back with a similar pitch to the one that hit Chicago's Josh Harrison on Thursday. Mateo had some words for Kopech.

Tigers 5, Diamondbacks 1

In Phoenix, Javier Báez hit a grand slam to quiet a fan in the front row and homer for the third straight game, lifting Detroit over Arizona.

Báez homered in consecutive games against Boston and launched his seventh career grand slam off Merrill Kelly (6-5) in the third inning of Detroit's first game in Arizona since 2017. Báez didn't watch as the ball sailed deep into the left field seats, turning instead to emphatically drop his bat while looking at a fan sitting near the on-deck circle. He circled the bases and, after high-fiving teammates, pointed to the fan before putting a shushing finger to his lips.

Rays 4, Pirates 3, 10 innings

In St. Petersburg, Harold Ramirez scored Vidal Brujan with a game-ending pinch-single in the 10th, lifting Tampa Bay over Pittsburgh.

Brujan took second as Tampa Bay's automatic runner and stole third against Yerry De Los Santos (0-1) before Ramirez's hit.

Jason Adam (1-2) got the win. Trailing 3-0, the Pirates tied it with three solo homers off starter Jeffrey Springs. Michael Chavis hit his eighth homer in the fourth, and Diego Castillo followed two batters later with his sixth.

Hoy Park led off the fifth with his second homer.

Cubs 3, Cardinals 0

In St. Louis, Kyle Hendricks carried a shutout into the eighth inning. Nico Hoerner homered and Chicago topped St. Louis.

Ian Happ also drove in a run for Chicago, which has won two of three.

Hendricks (3-6) continued his mastery over the Cardinals, who had won 12 of the previous 17 against the Cubs. He gave up five hits in 7 1/3 scoreless innings, struck out six and walked one. Hendricks improved to 13-3 in 25 lifetime starts against his NL Central rivals, his most victories against any team.

Red Sox 6, Guardians 3

In Cleveland, Christian Arroyo hit a two-run homer in the seventh and had three RBIs in his return from the COVID-19 injured list, powering red-hot Boston over Cleveland.

Arroyo's go-ahead homer to left-center off Bryan Shaw (3-1) gave the Red Sox a 4-2 lead, paving the way for their fifth straight win and moving them a season-high nine games over .500. Boston is 17-4 in June and 30-12 since May 10.

Rockies 1, Twins 0

In Minneapolis, Germán Márquez pitched 7 2/3 scoreless innings and Colorado prevailed in its first trip to Minnesota since 2017.

Charlie Blackmon's run-scoring fielder's choice plated Connor Joe (two hits) in the sixth inning for the Rockies, who snapped a three-game skid.

Márquez (4-5) had a season high in innings, a season low in runs and allowed three hits in winning his third straight decision as Colorado bounced game. Greinke allowed one run on three hits with four strikeouts in his first start since May 29. Scott Barlow earned his ninth save.

Blue Jays 9, Brewers 4

In Milwaukee, Alejandro Kirk went 4 for 4 and homered for the third straight game before leaving with a bruised left hand in the seventh inning of Toronto's victory over Milwaukee.

Kirk appeared to get hit in the hand on a backswing from Jonathan Davis in the seventh. The catcher remained in the game for the rest of that at-bat before leaving at the same time the Blue Jays made a pitching change. The team said Kirk underwent precautionary X-rays that came back negative.

Alek Manoah (9-2) pitched 6 2/3 strong innings, Cavan Biggio homered and Matt Chapman delivered a bases-loaded double as the Blue Jays won the first meeting between the teams since 2017.

Mariners 4, Angels 3

In Anaheim, Julio Rodríguez homered and scored twice, Eugenio Suárez had three hits and an RBI, and Seattle defeated Los Angeles despite Mike Trout's sixth home run against the Mariners this season.

Jesus Winker also had four hits as Seattle won its fourth straight. Chris Flexen (3-8) went five-plus innings to record his first victory since May 27. He allowed three runs and five hits with three strikeouts and two walks.

Nationals 2, Rangers 1

In Arlington, Josh Bell hit a go-ahead RBI single in the eighth inning and also had a triple and double while scoring Washington's only other run in his return home, as the Nationals won in their first interleague game at Texas in 17 years.

Bell, from nearby Irving, scored the game's first run in the sixth. Juan Soto led off the Nationals eighth with a double off just-in reliever Dennis Santana (3-3) before Bell followed with his hit that was the difference.

Reds 4, Giants 2

In San Francisco, rookie right-hander Graham Ashcraft bounced back from two poor starts, pitching a career-high eight innings to help Cincinnati stop its seven-game losing streak.

Nick Senzel drove in two runs and Mike Moustakas scored twice to pace the Reds' offense.
