

What's On

h o r o s c o p e

By Jacqueline Bigar

Happy birthday for Tuesday, April 16, 2019: This year, you make headway toward a long-term goal. You'll expend a lot of energy manifesting this goal. If single, you might want to devote less time to dating for a while, although you could meet someone of significance. If you're attached, you and your partner will bond more closely because of your long-term goal. When asked, Virgo gives you a lot of good ideas. Listen.

The Stars Show the Kind of Day You'll Have: 5-Dynamic; 4-Positive; 3-Average; 2-So-so; 1-Difficult.

Capricorn - (Dec 22 - Jan 19)

* What seems clear to you might be incredibly Byzantine to another person. Try not to be overly serene and demanding, as it could affect an important interaction. If you can stay mellow, you'll open yourself up to positive change. Tonight: Use your sixth sense.

Aquarius - (Jan 20 - Feb 18)

* Deal directly with a close associate. You succeed when interacting with others on this level. You can get to the bottom line far more quickly. Don't allow a feeling of being down to interfere with your actions and words. The feeling will pass. Tonight: Just don't be alone.

Pisces - (Feb 19 - Mar 20)

* With the help of a key partner, zero in on what you want. Together, you and your partner make a strong team. A long-term goal that you thought was a distant possibility could be in sight. Together, you and your partner become far stronger and more capable of manifesting this desire. Tonight: Go with a loved one's choice.

Aries - (Mar 21 - Apr 19)

* You could experience a strange tension as you attempt to put a situation together or understand the mechanics of what's happening. You might be concerned about what's occurring with a higher-up. Tonight: Unwind. Soak in a hot tub.

Taurus - (Apr 20 - May 20)

* At this point, your creativity soars. Confusion could exist around manifesting some of your great ideas. Reach out for a loved one or a dear friend at a distance. You have very different ways of looking at issues; make those differences positive. Tonight: Kick up your heels.

Gemini - (May 21 - June 20)

 You might find it difficult to move from one topic to another. You could be focused on one issue and unable to deal with others until you find a solution or answer. A partnership evolves, even though you might be aware of its implicit limitations. Tonight: Stay close to home.

Cancer - (June 21 - July 22)

* Speak your mind. Be clear about what needs to happen in order to clear out an issue. Exchange ideas freely; somewhere within discussions, a gem of an idea emerges. Don't back off from your search. Tonight: Visit with a friend.

Leo - (July 23 - Aug 22)

 Don't try to stretch either your budget or your assets too far. Confusion could easily plague your finances. An offer made might not come through in the way that you believe it will. When dealing with an associate, listen to your inner voice. Tonight: Know when to indulge yourself.

Virgo - (Aug 23 - Sept 22)

* Be aware of what needs to happen to further your cause. You could feel as though you cannot make a difference when dealing with a witty, undirected friend. Understand that this person likes the situation the way it is and doesn't appreciate your criticism. Tonight: Ever playful.

Libra - (Sept 23 - Oct 22)

 Know when to say little and listen more. You might not believe the gems of wisdom that could tumble into your life. You hear many different approaches and ways of thinking. Right now, make no major decisions. Tonight: Be unavailable.

Scorpio - (Oct 23 - Nov 21)

* Zero in on what you want. You might feel as though a loved one or child could be a little too distracting. Try to approach each issue on its own merits, not bringing feelings or emotional remnants into the discussion and decision-making. Tonight: Only where the crowds are.

Sagittarius - (Nov 22 - Dec 21)

 Take a stand and stay more in touch with your feelings. You could be in a jam and trying to juggle various facets of a problem. Investigate a suggestion that might be worth going with. Brainstorm with an associate. Tonight: To the web hours.

Dear Abby

Daughter gets little attention from dad

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: My husband is more interested in hanging out with his friends than caring about our 11-year-old daughter who has Asperger's syndrome. She's a great kid and smart, but she has challenges and needs help. It falls to me to do everything with and for her.

Abigail

I need him to participate more where she's concerned, but he loses patience with her and with me. He resents having to pay for therapy and music lessons for her (she loves music), but he had no hesitation about buying himself an expensive sports car — not for us but for him. He's actually going away for a weekend with his buddies!

I've thought about marriage counseling, but he isn't interested. I feel overwhelmed and very alone. Please help.

— Like a Single Mom in San Francisco

Dear Like a Single Mom: I'll try. Forgive my sarcasm, but it appears you married a real "winner" — selfish and lacking the compassion and maturity to deal with the challenges your family is facing. Because your husband is unwilling to go with you for marriage counseling, you would benefit from talking to a licensed therapist on your own. When you do, it may give you a broader perspective on what your options are.

Dear Abby: Eight years ago, my mother, then age 86, came to live with me. My life has changed substantially in the last two years, and I need to move to another state. My husband already lives there, and I want to be with him. My mother's anxieties and fears are what's holding me back.

I have told her she can live with us there, or at a brand-new assisted living facility that's about to open in the town. Alternatively, she could move back to our hometown where my retired sister lives and stay in an assisted living facility there. Her remaining in this city is not an option because I'm the only person she knows here, and it's eight hours from where I will be.

Conversations with her on this subject are difficult as she prefers to ignore them, choosing only to consider her own needs. Her overall health is manageable, and she's doing well cognitively. She has not been hospitalized in two years. What do I do?

— Taking Care in Florida

Dear Taking Care: Continue moving forward with your plans to relocate to be with your husband. Tell your mother you are giving her the choice of whether to reside with you or near your sister, but make clear she must make up her mind because you need to know whether you will have to accommodate her in your new home. Give her a deadline to let you know her preference, but if she refuses, make sure she understands that by default she'll be living near your sister.

Dear Abby: My ex and I went to my senior prom. I paid for everything, from the tickets down to his pocket square. It has been two years since the prom and one year since we broke up.

While packing away my prom dress, I realized how great it would be to have the bow tie and pocket square for future wearers as well as for sentimental value. I realize he may have gotten rid of them by now, but would it be wrong to ask for them if he still has them?

— Looking Back and Ahead

Dear Looking: Wrong? No. Fruitless? Probably.
